Judy Bogie Reigns

Lakers Defeat Tigers 7—6

An early homecoming, September 26, was initiated on a colorful note by the parade and bonfire. Seniors took top float awards with the slogan "Worming our Way to Victory." Coach Kortmeyer, and Co-captains Jerry Lofquist and Gary Dovel, spoke to the enthusiastic crowd.

The coronation ceremony on Friday afternoon made Homecoming fever rise. Judy Bogie was crowned Homecoming queen, and she proved a worthy choice.

The football team made Homecoming a complete success by edging Morris 7—6. A dance in the new gym to the music of "The Moondusters" closed a memorable occasion for 1958.

Set in quaint, romantic old Spain, "The Wonderful Adventures of Don Quixote" by Conrad Seiler proved an excellent selection for the senior class play of 1959. Under the direction of Earl Swenson, the 37-member cast gave a professional performance on Thursday and Friday, April 30 and May 1.

Outstanding performances were given by the entire cast, headed by Paul Zemke, Jim Missman, and Geraldine Erickson.

One-Act Play Goes to State Third Time

"Scenes from Romeo and Juliet," this year's one-act play production, won an 'excellent' rating at the state festival. It was the third time in the last four years that Lee Paulson has brought his play through the regional contest.

The judge in the state festival made special note of the performances given by Barbara McLaury as Juliet, Geraldine Sandeen and James Missman.

Members of the cast were Barbara McLaury, David Hedine, Geraldine Sandeen, Allen De Boer, Virginia Kickertz, James Missman, Robert Erlandson, James Vegoe and Richard Miller.

Assisting were Patricia Trobec, Orla Christianson, Carmen Schaub, and Bonnie Bogie.

Glenwood's six entrants in the Region 6 speech contest came home with three superiors and three excellents. Superiors were given to Clyde Olson in extemporaneous oratory, Ruth Mandrick in memorized oratory, and Patricia Halstead in original oratory. Excellents were given to Karen Martin in humorous reading, Judy Olson in serious reading, and Audrey Gilbertson in original oratory.

Pictured below are district declamation winners Ruth Mandrick, Judy Olson, Clyde Olson, Karen Martin, Audrey Gilbertson, and Patricia Halstead, in addition to debaters Gretchen Fisher and Eck Kraemer as they received their medals on Award Day from Mr. Swenson.

Marvin Dyrstad and Francis LeDuc receive traditional bowl and spoon as Best Mixers from predecessors Gary Dovel and Audrey Moan. Master of ceremonies Dave Hedine looks on with approval.

Prom Is Night of Magic, Enchantment

May is always filled with breathtaking activities, but the foremost is always the Junior-Senior Prom. This year it was held at the Lakeside ballroom on Friday, May 8.

Decorations cleverly carried out the "Arabian Nights" theme. A treasure chest occupied one corner, while camels and Arab figures lent an Eastern air.

Junior class president Francis LeDuc and her escort, Marvin Dyrstad, and Alvin Husom, senior class president, with his date, Gayle McCrory, led the colorful Grand March.

Frankie Chermak and his orchestra provided music for dancing. David Hedine served as master of ceremonies for a program which consisted of selections by the MisChords and a skit by the servers.

Francis LeDuc and Marvin Dyrstad received the Best Mixer awards, according to tradition, from last years choices, Audrey Moan and Gary Dovel.

Dancing lasted until one o'clock, when the group enjoyed an Arabian banquet in the Legion building.

At three the juniors and seniors returned to dance until six, when they scattered to their various breakfasts and picnics.

The magic Arabian evening had ended too quickly!

Commencement Honors 108 Seniors

Glenwood's 68th annual Commencement exercises on May 25, found 108 seniors receiving diplomas, culminating four years of struggling toward that goal. The processional was played by Irene Femrite, Rev. Larry Seiffert gave the invocation, and Clyde Olson followed with his salutatory address.

After a number by the boys' quartet, the main address was delivered by Dr. Forrest E. Conner, superintendent of the St. Paul school system. Mr. Nordgaard and Mr. Carlson took care of the presentation of the class and calling of the class roll, while Mr. E. L. Haldorson, president of the Board of Education presented the diplomas.

The girls' sextet provided more music, and Audrey Moan delivered the valedictory. Rev. Seiffert closed the program with the benediction.

Student Council

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS: Francis LeDuc, Vice President; Richard Miller, Treasurer; Lavina Eckert, President; Gary Dovel, Secretary.

Under the leadership of its officers and the advisorship of Mr. Carlson, this group of hardworking student council members completed a successful and eventful year. As the student government body in GHS, the council seeks to promote citizenship among the students.

Examples of the Student Council's undertaking and accomplishments would be the complete Homecoming program, the TAP drive in January, and sponsoring the German Foreign Exchange Student, Eckhard Kramer.

During the Teen Age Program, the balloon and peanut sales, the raffle, the MOD dance, etc. brought in over $580. According to tradition, the sophomores did a good job on Dental Health. Other projects were Courtesy Week, World Clothing Week, which yielded 49 bags of clothing, and the Christmas door and hall decorations.

A new undertaking was to draw up a constitution for the formation of a chapter of the National Honor Society in our school. This would promote leadership and scholarship and make various scholarships available to Glenwood High School Students.

The Minnewaskan Yearbook

Co-Editors Bonnie Kaldahl and Judy Bogie.

The Minnewaskan for 1959 you are now reading is the result of many more man-hours of work than most people realize. It involves work for about 40 students and two advisers before being sent to the American Yearbook Company in Hannibal, Missouri, where the special talents of another large staff puts the book into production. Mr. McCarty advised the circulation and advertising staff headed by Barbara Evans and Clyde Olson. Mr. Leaf advised the make-up and editorial end headed by Bonnie Kaldahl and Judy Bogie. Ek Kramer did the cover and title page designs, as well as the division pages and all other art work. Special assistants in make-up and writing were Claire Hedine, Lavina Eckert and Muriel Kvale.

G. A. A.

Under the direction of Miss Plonty, the G.A.A. spent a busy, activity-filled year. Inter-class tournaments were held in volleyball and basketball, with the seniors copping all honors. The monotony of winter sports was broken with occasional bowling and swimming. Softball ranked number one in the spring.

The many activities help the girls toward better health, better character, and better sportsmanship.

G-Club

The G-Club, largely through its concessions at basketball games the past year, purchased new down markers for the football field. This was the most recent in a long list of purchases which have contributed much to the athletic program in Glenwood. The organization also bought and improved an acre of land behind the school, which was used as a skating rink last winter.

Officers the past year were Larry Hedlin, president; Al DeBoer, vice-president; and James Buchholz, secretary-treasurer.

Band Takes Home Every Award

Every year we've been saying in this publication that the band "had a great year" or that the band "had a very busy year." If those statements were true, then the past year must have been the greatest and busiest year of all. Certainly, no other school organization did so much to gain recognition for the school and community. Here is a partial list of their accomplishments since last June under the direction of William Kandaras:

*Named Prep Parade Band of the Week and Band of the Year; named top marching band in huge Alexandria centennial parade; named to represent the state at MMEA convention in Minneapolis where they received a standing ovation; won top rating in district and region-state music contests.

*Participated in parades at Alexandria, Willmar, St. Paul, Clarkfield, Brooten, Wheaton, and Glenwood.

*Locally gave six summer concerts, participated in Waterama, Pope County Fair, Memorial Day, and centennial train activities.

*Gave fall and spring concerts, played at football and basketball games, and gave a concert at Willmar.

In region-state competition individual firsts were won by clarinetists Karen Hustad, Janet Grove, Ona Morton and Mikey Elsey; Jim Morton on the piano and tuba, Candace Rygh on oboe, Jim Vegoe, alto saxophone, and Lewis Haldorson, baritone. The clarinet quartet also won an 'A' rating.

Choir's Year Is Eventful

For the senior choir, under the direction of Robert Mix, the 1958-59 year was an eventful one. Concerts, contests and other appearances kept this talented group very busy.

The year marked the first time a Glenwood musical organization ever appeared on television. The choir gave a half-hour performance of Christmas music over KCMT in Alexandria.

Variety marked both the spring and Christmas concerts, and the group came through with topnotch performances both times. In the Christmas concert they sang a collection of modern, calypso, and traditional Christmas numbers. The spring concert featured "Spring" by Grieg, "O Lord God" by Tschernokov, and "Drum," a contemporary number by Fetter.

The choir also gave a concert in Litchfield as a part of the West Central "round robin," and were invited to sing at St. Olaf College's May festival in Northfield on May 17.

The choir received an 'A' rating at both the district and region-state levels. So did the boys' quartet and the MisChords. Soloists who won top honors in the region-state contest were sopranos Barbara McLaurey and Patricia Halstead, contralto Judy Hoplin, and mezzo soprano Audrey Weisel.

Officers this year were Eckhard Kramer, president; Robert Kvitek, vice-president; Jane Lund, secretary-treasurer; and James Missman and Wallis Ogdahl, librarians and gown chairmen.

Junior High Choir

Part of the reason for the successes of Glenwood High School's musical organizations is the building that is done down in the grades and the junior high school. The Junior High Choir and the Cadet Band serve as the training ground for future activities in the parent organizations.

The young choir performs at the fall and spring concerts and the Christmas program, while the Cadet Band plays at the spring concert.

Gridders 3rd in West Central

Coach Howard Kortmeyer's charges got off to a fast start with victories over Elbow Lake and Osakis. Montevideo made the Lakers settle for a 6-6 tie, but the next week at Homecoming Morris was edged 7-6. Litchfield's Dragons put them in the loss column for the first time to start a 3-game losing streak. Alexandria was a 19-6 winner, and Willmar finished on top, 39-14, but only after the Lakers put on a tremendous first half show and trailed by only 18-14 at the half. The season ended with a 13-0 victory over Sauk Centre's Main Streeters.

Jerry Lofquist, Jim Vegoe and Gary Dovel were named to the All-Conference team, with Larry Hedlin and Al DeBoer on the second team. Lofquist also was named to the All-Area team and, along with Gary and Jim, was given honorable mention in the state selections. Gary led the team in rushing, passing and scoring.

Lakers 2nd in League, Lose in District

After splitting with Melrose during the season, the Lakers were eliminated with finality by the Dutchmen in the District 22 semi-finals, 85-46. Sauk Centre, with whom the Lakers also traded victories, went on to win the District title.

With a veteran but still fairly young team, Coach Jim Gremmels got his cagers off to a good start, winning five of seven games. The turning point came in a 49-48 loss to Starbuck. During the rest of the year the team could do no better than break even, although two of the victories were over Sauk Centre and Melrose, two teams who dominated District play. Overall, the Lakers won 11 of 20 games and scored 1121 points to 1125 for the combined opposition.

Three Lakers averaged more than ten points per game, with Bruce Mortensbak leading the way with a 14.6 mark. In league play Mort averaged 13.2, good enough for sixth place. Jim Backer of Montevideo led the league, while Al DeBoer and Gary Dovel were 12th and 13th.

Mortensbak was named to the All-Conference team along with Allan DeBoer, and Gary Dovel received honorable mention. Mort was a unanimous selection.

Off-Year for Spirings Sports

It was definitely an off-year for spring sports as the baseball team was eliminated in the sub-district, the golfers were fourth in the district, and the track team managed no points in the regional meet. Paul Zemke led the baseball hitters with a .421, Paul Rooney and Mike Irwin paced the golfers, while the two relay teams both won the district in track.
